HINDENBERG'S ARMY REPORTED
TODAY TO HAVE MADE FURTHER

DVINSK.

By Evening Herald Leased Wire London, Oct. 27 (12:40 p.m.)—The desperate plight of the Serbians, which has been described ever since the beginning of the Austro-German and Bulgarian invasions as an affair of national life and death, is no longer a rhetorical phrase, but the internal truth. London's optimism regarding the outcome of the Balkan conflict, which had been colored by reports of the determined Serbian resistance and the difficulties which the invaders were meeting, has given way to the conviction that it will take something in the nature of a miracle to avert disaster for Serbia.

The entry of the British armada to Epirus to do everything in its power to rescue remaining serbs as far as possible intensifies the resistance of the Serbians as resorting to last resource.

Austro-German and Bulgarian forces are now within twenty miles of each other. Bullock and Bullock of Douglas invading armies are advancing along a hundred-mile front twelve to forty miles south of the Dvinsk.

Whether the communication between Hungary and Bulgaria by way of the Danube has not been established is doubtful, but the proximity of the forces of the two countries makes such communication at least improbable.

All dispatches continue to describe the intense Serbian resistance of the Germans, according to accounts which have reached here concerning the capture of the capital, the Serbians defended every foot of ground fiercely and the progress was slow on either side.

Although the Balkan forces are now to have outnumbered the Serbians 10 to 1, they made only one progressive move. All the others remain to the death.

Fish Marshal von Hindenburg's extraordinary maneuvering during the last week, but his lack of aggressiveness in attacking the Bulgarians definitely failed to shake the Russians' defenses. South of the Dvinsk the Austrians are struggling to regain the initiative. The situation on other fronts shows no material change.

concluding session of the historical meeting of the National Council of Congregational Churches held yesterday. The several missionary and educational bodies which have not as yet joined the great gathering will conclude their labors tonight.

The services of Webster and his here and in the United States and lands abroad in England. Their show

Today's War Summary

The first connecting link between the Austro-German forces invading Serbia and their Bulgarian allies has been made.
Junction of the armies east of Braza Palanka, on the Danube, in the far northeastern corner of Serbia, is reported by Berlin.

The main advance of the Austro-German forces is along the Morava valley, where runs the railroad line through Nish, east to Sofia and thence on to Constantinople. This junction reported as effected does not yet give the direct railroad connection desired by the Teutonic forces.

King Constantine of Greece has abandoned his proposed visit to Sarajevo; it being concluded, it is said that an exchange of official calls with allied commanders there might be misconstrued.

The situation at Goraz is critical for the Austrians, according to advices from Brussels, which state the Italians are now attacking the Austro-German lines, their heavy guns outranging the Austrian artillery. Strong positions were taken in an infantry attack on Monday and the heavy bombardment was then resumed, it is declared.

Franco-Serbian successes in southern Serbia probably have rendered untenable the Komanivo-Vranya line of the Bulgarians along the Nish-Sarajevo road, according to a Sarajevo dispatch.
The Bulgarians in this sector are declared to be menaced by Serbian attacks from both sides.

In northwestern Serbia the Austrians report substantial progress. They have seized strong positions south of Obrzecovac and the forces of occupation are nearing Valjevo, from which Austrian cavalry already has driven the Serians. From Visegrad, in Bosnia, the Serians have been driven back to the Serbian border. Vienna declares the mountainous country in the bend of the Danube east of Ribnica narrows has virtually been cleared of hostile forces.

In the Champagne district in France the Germans again have attacked the position at La Courtine, portions of which the French claimed to have held after its capture recently. Paris declares the latest attack was completely repulsed.

Hard fighting continues in the various sectors of the Aus-trio-German front, where the Italians are driving their offensive movement for Gorizia and the approaches to Trieste. Vienna declares the invaders have failed to make progress. Some slackening of the force of attack on the Do-berdo plateau is reported.

Vienna asserts that the Austrian aerial raid on Venice was in reprisal for an Italian air attack on Triest. Material damage to military property was inflicted, it is indicated.

days, dropped today to £1.00, a new low record for the current year.

A subsequent rally carried the pound to $1.015.

Negotiations leading to the establishment of a supplemental British credit, estimated at from £100,000,000 to £250,000,000 were still under way would be given of a banking nature and would not involve the issuance of bonds to be offered to the public.

GANG WORKED WITH PRECISION OF SOLDIERS

After Taking Charge of Passenger Train Members of Party Stopped Freight and Tied Up Crew.

(By Evening Herald Leased Wire)
Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 27.—A band of ten robbers held up Missouri, Kansas & Texas passenger train No. 9, southbound from Chicago to San Antonio, near Omaha, about 2 p. m. today, tied up the crew with ropes, placed a guard over the passengers and looted three express cars. They held the train two hours and went about their work with military precision.

They sent back a detachment which stopped a freight train coming up behind and placed the freight crew under guard to prevent interference. Express officials refused to tell the amount of loot taken by the robbers, who escaped into the woods and marshes in the vicinity of Omaha and were today being pursued by peace officers of a dozen counties and hundreds of citizens organized into posse. The train rolled often carries large amounts of money and securities.

Despite the robbers' methodical efforts their plans went awry and they took away the contents of only one safe. Three other safes defied their attempts. The men made no effort to molest mails or passengers.

Eufaula, Okla., Oct. 27.—Three posses, one from Muskogee, one from this city and one from the state penitentiary at McAlester, the latter with bloodhounds, are hunting the marshes near Omaha and are gradually working toward the Windmill Spring mountains, in which are located the haunts of the old gang of outlaws which terrorized eastern Oklahoma several years ago when the outlaws held up and robbed Missouri, Kansas and Texas southbound passenger train No. 9.

The hold-up was one of the most desperate and best planned ever attempted in this section. The robbers are believed to have secured about $3,000 from the one express safe they succeeded in opening.

Denton, Tex., Oct. 27.—Gentlemen of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, whose train No. 9 was held up last night near Eufaula, Okla., and the express car robbery which occurred earlier today, were held up again this morning.

The robbers had a complete success in their second attempt, however, and robbed the express car again.

Intense discussion was had on the part of the passengers, it was said here, knew nothing of the hold-up until they awoke this morning. The train was held four hours late in Denton.

It was believed here that the intention of the robbers was to rob the mail car and the express car.
